

The United States Army Field Band

The Musical Ambassadors of the Army
Washington, DC

2010 Young Artist Competition

RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Please read carefully before completing the application materials.

- Age/Location: Contestants must be in grades 9-12. Applications are being accepted from Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.
- Repertoire: Contestants must prepare 1 selection from the required repertoire list. The selected solo will be used for the preliminary and final rounds, as well as the solo performance with The U.S. Army Field Band, if selected (See required repertoire list for individual instrument details.).
- Accompanist: We strongly recommend that CDs/tapes submitted for the preliminary round include piano accompaniment. Contestants reaching the final round will have the choice of using an accompanist from The U.S. Army Field Band or arrange for their own accompanist.
- Application Packet Deadline: Applications, CDs/tapes, and resumés must be received on or before Monday, February 1, 2010. Resumés should be a list of musical achievements and should include, but are not limited to, awards received, all-state and county selections, work experience, and private lesson history. Please send application packets to:

The U.S. Army Field Band
Attn: Educational Activities Coordinator
4214 Field Band Drive STE 5330
Fort Meade, MD 20755-7055

- Final Audition Date: Selected finalists will travel to Fort Meade, Maryland on Saturday, March 13, 2010, for the final round of the competition. Travel expenses will be paid by The U.S. Army Field Band. Finalists will perform with an accompanist for a panel of judges.
- Performance Date: The winner will perform as soloist with The U.S. Army Field Band at Clowes Memorial Hall of Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana on Friday, April 9, 2010. Rehearsals for this performance will be Thursday, April 8, 2010.
